YAFH Student Artists at Work

We are very excited to be partnering with 12 schools this year. Some schools participating in our 2022-23 program have partnered with YAFH for as many as ten years, while other schools have joined our program just this year. Student artists pictured are from Albert Einstein High School (first row), St. Andrew Apostle School (second row), Thomas S. Wootton High School (third row), and Wheaton High School (fourth row).

We're looking forward to our Art Show on Wednesday, April 26 where all students' paintings will be on display for you to view and enjoy!
